

Aram Nerpouni

As the President and Chief Executive Officer of BioEnterprise, Aram Nerpouni leads industry changing initiatives, working with public and private entities to grow the bioscience industry in Cleveland and Northeast Ohio. Prior to his current role, Aram functioned as BioEnterprise's vice president of strategic development. In August 2012 he took over the leadership position.

Aram brings strong international perspective to BioEnterprise, having spent more than 10 years helping U.S. companies develop sales, marketing and distribution strategies in emerging European, Asian and Latin American markets.

Aram received his MBA from the Weatherhead School of Management at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland and a B.S. in biology from Stanford University. He serves on the boards of the Great Lakes Science Center, Cleveland School of Science and Medicine, and Child Guidance and Family Solutions.
